BAKERY SALESMAN OBJECT TO UNIFORMS

ington Union Will Meet Wedesday to Make Protest Against Proposed Change.

The report that certain bakeries of this ty will in the near future require sales-en to wear uniforms has resulted in pro-sts that will take definite form at a certing of the Washington Union of Bak-y Salesmen, to be held next Wednes-y Salesmen, to be held next Wednesy.

It was said last night that in protestg the bakery salesmen will call attenin to the practice of many bakeries forcing salesmen to hitch and unblich lef horses, and even to take care of harse. It will be urged by the salesmen at bakers are deceptive in bidding for commendation of the public by makr their employes wear uniforms in the erect of sanitation.
Salesmen claim that it is insanitary to tow bread to be handled by the men to attend to the horses. They say that meember of the executive board of eir union was discharged by a Washtron bakery two years age for urging at salesmen should not be permitted enter the stables. Furthermore, they y that more than a Year ago they afe unsurcessful protest against the actice.

uffragists Are Told of Women' Part in Indian Councils.

Part in Indian Councils.

Mrs. Laurs Cornellius Keilogg, a member of the Goods Tribe, one of the six nations of New York, addressed a meeting of suffragins at the Chamber of Commerce last night. She told her audience about the Indian women, whom, she said, she considered now to be the responsible part of the Indian people.

Mrs. Kellogg is seven-eighths Indian She has studied at Lealand Stanford University. Barnard College, the University of Wisconsin, and in universities in Europe. In her address last night Mrs. Kellogg lind stress upon the fact that the Indian women had always had an equal voice in the councils of the tribes. Arrangements for the Washington contingent to Baltimore have been completed. More than $60 women are to go, they are to have one of the most prominent positions in the suffrage line of march, and by resson of their "chic" costumes expect to reserve the greater share of applause to themselves.
